ATTACKED IN COPPER CASE

William F. Fitzgerald Testifies He Favored Suppression in Report.

In letters presented today to the com mittee in uring in the fitness of Louis D. Brandels to be justice of the United States Supreme Court, William Howard Taft, Elihu Root, Joseph H Choate, and other former presidents of the American Bar Association, went on record as opposing confirmation of Mr.

One letter contained the signatures of those mentioned and also of Fineon D. Baldwin and Francis Rawle. A separate letter was filed from Peter Meldrun, of Savannah, Ga.

The first letter stated. The undersigned feel under the pain ful duty to say to you that in their opinion taking into view the reputation, character, and professional career of Louis D. Brandels, he is not a fit person to be a member of the Supreme Court of the United States."

letter from Mr. Meldrun was sim-

Concerning Copper Deals.

The Brandels hearing was reopened this morning before the subcommittee of the Senate Judiciary Committe to hear testimony regarding Mr. Brandels' connection with the Old oDminion Copper and Smelting Company case, in which ters were required by court decree to refund $2,000,000 to the company. William F. Fitzgerald, of Towie and Fitzgerald, stockbrokers of oBston, and who now is treasurer of the Democratic State committee of Massachusetts, charged Mr. Brandels with favoring the charged Mr. Brandels with favoring the suppression of a report from the stockholders, and with recommending a scheme for inancing the company which Mr. Fitzgerald regards as illegal.

Preliminary to his testimony Mr. Fitzgerald said he had been called by the committee and continued:

"I think Mr. Brandels likes to get himself in the light of being persecuted, I am not trying to persecute him, though I dislike him very much."

Acording to Mr. Fitzgerald, Mr. Brandels was retained by him and certain of his customers who had invested in the Old oDminion Company. Later Mr. Fitzgerald and his followers got control of the Old oDminion Company and the Phelps-Dodge oCmpany cooperated with them in the rehabilitation of the Old Dominion Company.

How It Happened. Mr. Fitzgerald said it was propose to consolidate the Old Dominion and the United Globe Company, a Phelps Dodge property. He said an enginee was ongaged to look into the relative values of the Old Dominion and the United Globe, and that this engineer

"You had better get on the bandwagon. The money is with the Phelps-Dodge people."

On cross-examination by Senator Waish, Mr. Fitzgerald admitted that his partner, Mr. Cowie, also had advised withholding the report.

Edward F. McClennen, partner of Mr. Brandels, was called to the stand and began a lengthy review of the Old Dominion Company case. He was halted by Senator Walsh, who said the only points in which the committee was interested were the suppression of the report and the financial plan said to have been recommended by Brandels.

Planned Securties Company. This plan, as described by Mr. Fitz-gerald, was to form a securities company, offering the old stockholders the first chance to subscribe and dividing after them as a bonus 60,000 shares of Old Dominion stock free of charge.

Mr. McClemen read a letter from Mr. Brandels to Mr. Fitzgerald, status that Mr Brandels as counsel for the Old Dominion Company had no power to issue statements to stockholders.

In his letter Mr. Brandels also pointed out that under the consolidation stockholders of the Old Dominion would profit more largely than they had in the past.

Mr. Brandels asserted in the letter that the Old Dominion property had crued nothing in the past eight years, and that even the rumer of consolidation had caused the stock to jump from $5 to $13. Its par value was $25. pany, offering the old stockholders the
